

A Korean American violinist, Dr. Cindy Park is dedicated to her career as both an active performer and a passionate pedagogue for all ages. Throughout her violin career, she has had numerous solo, chamber, and orchestral performances around the world, including England, the Czech Republic, Austria, Italy, and USA.

Born in Seoul, South Korea, Dr. Park began her musical journey by playing piano and violin at the age of seven. Her violin debut at the age of 8 was broadcast on the Seocho Cable TV station in South Korea. In 2003, she performed as a soloist under the baton of Vladimir Yampolsky at the Georgia Music Educators Association festival.

Dr. Park has wide orchestral experience, including the Las Colinas Symphony, Panama City Pops Orchestra, and Northwest Florida Symphony Orchestra. In addition, she has served as both concertmaster and assistant concertmaster of the Ludwig Symphony Orchestra.

Prior to moving back to Dallas, TX, Dr. Park has served as Adjunct Professor of Violin at Charleston Southern University in Charleston, SC. In the summertime, she has coached chamber music ensembles at the University of North Texas Summer String Institute and taught violin and viola lessons at Charleston Southern University Summer Music Camp.

Dr. Park received bachelor degrees as a double major in Violin Performance and Music Education from Florida State University, then a master's degree from the University of Michigan. Recently, she received her Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Violin Performance with a related field in Music Theory at the University of North Texas. She has been awarded numerous accolades throughout her violin career, including Dean's Camerata Scholarship, Douglas H. Hoard Scholarship, and University of Michigan Graduate Merit Scholarship.
